Raku Urns

The Raku Urn is a hand crafted one of a kind piece of art. Just like your loved one, each is unique with no two urns ever looking exactly the same.

The Rainbow Raku firing process produces random vibrant iridescent colour variances in the glazed finish. The colours range from gold and silver through metallic copper, pink and peacock blue with burgundy undertones. This unpredictable element makes each urn truly unique. The finished surface is an earthy texture of sand and clay with a matte to glossy lustre. The spots, marks and brush like strokes are part of the design. These marks cannot be controlled or removed.

Designed to be on display away from sunlight due to its porous nature. Each urn is crafted to order with the ribbon and silver lettering designed to be fully customisable with your loved ones name.

Made to order, allow 4-6 weeks for production.

Ash Glaze Ceramics

We have the pleasure of offering this stunning handcrafted range from bespoke Australian business, Conscious Clay.

These products are not urns. Your selected choice, of a made to order ceramic piece, is instead finished in a glaze that is created with a portion of your loved one's ashes.

Every vessel is as unique as the life it represents, as no two glaze results are exactly the same, reminding us that we are all beautifully different.

There is also the option of a rustic vessel, this has the ashes worked through the clay creating a rich tapestry of colours. This can either be a statement piece or internally glazed to utilise as a vase.

This is a wonderful way for numerous loved ones to each have their own special remembrance piece.
